PROFILE

Full stack developer and Software Engineering student at IUE, building web apps with React, Next.js, Node.js, Supabase and MongoDB, with production apps live on Vercel such as Classly, an AI study platform with paid plans. Strong command of AI tools through Claude Code: I automate development work and everyday processes with agentic workflows, custom skills, hooks and MCP integrations, an approach that fits almost any team or task, and I review every change. Customer support and back office work gave me strong communication and problem solving skills. Native Spanish, C1 English.
